Warren Consolidated Schools names new high school and elementary school principals

Warren, MI – Warren Consolidated Schools is pleased to announce Kevin Kittle as the principal of Warren Mott High School and Mike Lee as the principal of Margaret Black Elementary School.

Kevin Kittle served as the interim principal of Warren Mott since the fall of 2022 after former principal David Meengs was named the district's Chief Academic Officer.

Kittle has worked for Warren Consolidated Schools for the past 20 years. He served as assistant principal at Warren Mott, district Instructional Technology Specialist, and a physical education teacher.

"I am excited for the opportunity to be the building principal at Warren Mott High School," Kittle said. "I look forward to working with our talented staff, dedicated parents, motivated students and involved community members."

Kittle holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hope College and a Master's degree in Educational Leadership from Saginaw Valley State University.

In his free time, Kittle enjoys spending time with his wife and three daughters, traveling, attending his children's sporting events, and being outdoors.

Mike Lee served as the interim principal at Margaret Black Elementary School after former principal Khris Nedom's retirement in December 2022.

Lee has been with Warren Consolidated Schools for the past 20 years. He served as Assistant Principal at Carleton Middle School, a science teacher at Carter Middle School, and a teacher at Perl Lean Elementary. He was also a varsity assistant football coach and head varsity girls basketball coach at Cousino High School, where he led the team to a Class A Girls Basketball State title in 2016.

"I look forward to helping the students of Margaret Black Elementary get ready academically, socially, and emotionally for the next level, while having some fun along the way." Lee said.

Lee holds a Bachelor's degree from Wayne State University and a Master's degree from Marygrove College.

Lee is an avid sports fan. In his free time you can find Lee and his wife following their three children around the country and state playing sports. He is excited to plan trips in the fall to watch his daughter play college volleyball.

"Mr. Kittle and Mr. Lee are two outstanding leaders in our organization," Superintendent Robert D. Livernois, Ph.D. said. "Both Kevin and Mike are committed to the students, staff and parents they serve. I am confident they will continue to do great things at their respective buildings."
